What is London Grains week?

London Grains Week is a week-long series of events, including meetings, summits, strategy sessions and conferences, centred around the vital role of the international trade in grains.

Run by four key bodies in the sector, it is designed to promote London as a hub for International commodities and bring the industry together to lead strategic debate and discuss the challenges ahead.

London Grains Week celebrates the grain industry events which occur 8 – 12 June 2020 in London and supports the essential knowledge-exchange and networking that they promote.

LONDON GRAINS WEEK

8-12 JUNE 2020

Supported by

Agriculture and Horticulture Development Board

We deliver transformational projects to drive productivity and boost farming and supply chain businesses. We want the industry to thrive in a rapidly changing world and continue to produce high quality food, maintain our beautiful landscape and leave a legacy for generations to come.

To cover the whole supply chain; we work with farmers, growers, packers, processors, agronomists, vets and abattoirs. This helps us unify the industry, bridge gaps in knowledge and encourage collaboration to build a stronger future for everyone.

International Grains Council

IGC is an intergovernmental organisation that seeks to:

- Further international cooperation in grains, oilseeds and rice trade;
- Promote expansion, openness and fairness in the grains sector;
- Contribute to grains, oilseeds and rice global market transparency.

The IGC provides robust market forecasts and analysis and stimulates consultation on market and policy developments between the actors of the grains value chain.
